

Get legal services for part of your family law problem

$ You pay for the legal tasks you want help with, and you handle the rest of your case yourself **$

Examples include hiring a lawyer to:

Represent you at one court hearing

Give you legal advice

Guide you with coaching

Prepare a document for you to use in court

Help prepare you for a negotiation

*And more . . . check now: unbundlingLAW.ca

How to get unbundled legal services:

You might not have to travel
Many lawyers offer their services over the phone or with video conferencing!

Legal Services Society (LSS) will pay for your unbundled legal services if you qualify.

LSS also has free resources that can help you with your legal issue.

Visit legalaids.bc.ca for more info.